

Alison Schneider,
Principal, Encompass ESG Corporation
Senior Fellow, GRESB and Canadian Representative, Ceres Investor Network

One of the pioneers of sustainable finance in Canada, Alison's current roles include Senior Fellow with GRESB BV, Canadian representative-Ceres Investor Network, Director- Emerging Markets Investor Association, Sustainable Finance Consultant and Lecturer. Previously, Alison established and led the Sustainable Investing function at Alberta Investment Management Corporation (2012-2022). Alison is a co-founder of GRESB Infrastructure, and Climate Engagement Canada.

Alison has served on multiple boards and committees for entities such as the GRESB Foundation Board, International Governance Network, G7 Investor Leadership Network and International Standards Organization. Alison is a recipient of the prestigious Canadian Clean50 Award, and University of Alberta Alumni Award for her work. Alison instructs today's and tomorrow's executives through the Canada Climate Law Initiative, and the University of Alberta MBA program.